OFFICIALS SEEK CAUSE OF CRASH

Paving Company In Race With Rains On Macdonald

PAVING PROGRAM IS GOING AHEAD RAPIDLY TO GET DONE THIS FALL

Work on Macdonald Avenue Being Rushed by Addition
Of Crews

PUTTING IN A MILLION FEET
Should Early Rains Delay Big Job
Contract May Not Be Done
On Schedule

Paving work on the streets of Richmond is progressing rapidly, according to reports from the city engineer's office.

BEFORE RAIN COMES

Both the city officials and officials
of the Northern Paving company, contractor for 1,000,000 feet of paving
in this city, expect to see the streets
completed before the rainy season
sets in.

LONGER ON MACDONALD

Macdonald avenue, between Twenty
third street and San Pablo avenue,
is a possible exception. Although a large staff of men, 40 head of horses,
rollers, and steam shovels are working on the street, doubt is expressed
as to the possibility of completing
the work before early fall.

WILL SPEED UP WORK

The paving company is confident
that the street will be finished before the weather becomes too bad to go ahead. City Engineer E. A. Hoffman is said to be of the belief that even more equipment will have to be pushed onto the job to do this.
MAY NEED EXTENSION.

The Northern Paving company's contract expires shortly after January 1, 1926, but if necessary an extension will be granted, it is said.
MAY MEET DELAYS

However, if it is late before
the work is completed, it will be required for drying the earth before
work can proceed.

TO FINISH OTHERS

It is expected that all other contracts will be finished before delay
will be encountered by bad weather.

NEW BUILDING OPENING THIS WEEK DELAYED

Opening of the new syndicate
building, originally set for tomorrow,
will be postponed until the middle of the week on account of further
work to be done on the lower floor.

The Richmond Merchants Association, the Chamber of Commerce and other tenants in the office upstairs were moving in yesterday. There are 20 of these offices upstairs, and quarters for five businesses on the first floor. All but two of three of the offices have been rented.

RICHMOND HAS LARGE NUMBER IN UNIVERSITY

Richmond will be well represented
at the University of California this year. The number of registrants in that college from this city is steady
increasing until this year there will probably be more than ever before.

Among those who have entered
the Berkeley school are Miss Geraldine Rock, Miss Lila Youd, Miss Hazel Olsen, Miss Phyllis Hasson,
George Olsen, Merle Nantz, Harold
Swenson, Miss Nell McGrew, Miss Alice Stuebner, Louis Shaw, Er-
roll Panning, Miss Dorothy Barikas, Miss Mary Olney, Miss Patricia Stanley, Miss Rosamund Stanley, Keith Narbett, Miss Blossom Griffin and Miss Ieda Osborn.

Most of these students are graduates of Richmond Union high school.

BOOZE LANDING PLANS BLOW UP

Sentries Nab Truck With Liquor
Aboard When Machine
Stalls

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—An accident and the United States Army
aided prohibition enforcement officers
early yesterday morning in seizing
more than $10,000 worth of high grade liquors and discovering a favorite San Francisco landing place
for smuggled rum.

The point, declared by dry agents
as being long used by rum-runners
as an entry to San Francisco, is located on the beach below Fort Scott.
Discovery of the landing came
after a truckload of more than 100
cases of assorted liquor, ranging from "Scotch" to champagne, was seized
by sentries in the Port Scott reservation.

The truck, overloaded, came to grief
while transporting its illicit cargo through the military reservation, losing a wheel and toppling into the ditch. Sentries held the driver and notified police and prohibition authorities.

Mrs. Axtell Is Honored By Club

A reception in honor of Mrs. Emily Axtell was given by the Richmond
Cosmopolitan club in the Richmond
high school hall last evening.
Mrs. Axtell, director of Americanization work in this district, returned last week from a tour of Europe in company with Miss Nora Ashfield, assistant superintendent of schools.

During the evening, Mrs. Axtell
gave an interesting account of her
trip, through the British Isles, France, Switzerland and Italy. She told many interesting and humorous
experiences encountered on the journey.

On account of the illness of Mrs.
Wilson, president of the club, the election of officers was deferred until the next meeting, Saturday evening, September 5. Mrs. Scholte, vice-president, presided last night.

It was decided to hold a banquet
and dance in the high school during the early part of October. Mrs.
Axtell will act as general chairman
of the affair.

Besides the transaction of regular business, several new members were taken into the organization at the meeting, indicating the growing interest of aliens in becoming citizens
of the country.

MOTHER AND BOY MURDERED

Bodies Found in Cellar Shortly
After Killing—Husband
Is Hunted

(By Universal Service)

CANDEN, N. J., Aug. 15.—A crime
more brutal than any that has startled this part of the country in many
a day has set both city and county
authorities on a man hunt.

CLUBBED TO DEATH
A mother and her son were found
in the cellar of their home today
clubbed to death. Dark pools of blood stained the floor.

The woman, Mrs. Catherine Audia, 32, was dead when discovered. Her son, John Batiste, died several hours
later in a local hospital. The bodies were found this afternoon by Joseph Jenile, cousin of the murdered woman, and who made his home with the Audias.

HUSBAND SOUGHT.
According to Jenile, the woman's husband, Joseph Audia, had planned to quit his job. He came home during the day and quarreled with his wife, later sending her to the cellar
to fetch him some wine. He is believed to have followed her to the cellar and after continuing the argument, clubbed her to death with an iron bound mallet and a hammer
which were found on the floor near the bodies. Audia is then said to have used the weapons on the child,
who had been a witness to his deed.

Every detective and police officer
available has joined the search for Audia, who up to a late hour had not been caught.

Ground Squirrels Hit By Disease

TRES PINOS, Aug. 15.—Coincident
with the farm bureau units of San Benito county organizing and cooperating for a country-wide gas
and bomb drive on ground squirrels,
which have been ruining hundreds
of orchard trees, and vineyard roots, Bud E. Cole, squirrel inspector, reported today that a mysterious disease is killing the pests off by scores. Expert investigation is to be made to determine the cause and
nature of the disease.

WILL EXPAND COTTAGE

George Zanes will construct an addition to his cottage on Twelfth
street, between Bissell and Chanslor
avenues at a cost of $300, according to a permit issued yesterday by Building Inspector E. E. Grow.

WOMEN'S CLUB WILL ATTEND

Opening of Fall Dinner Series
At St. Edmunds Guild
Tomorrow

Opening the series of autumn program dinners tomorrow evening in St. Edmunds guild hall, at Tenth and Barrett, the Richmond Merchants association will entertain an honored
guest and speaker of the occasion
Richard M. Neustadt, managing director of the California Retail council.

"Better Business Building" will be the topic of Neustadt's address. He comes with a high reputation as an expert in business methods.

WOMEN TO ATTEND.
A feature of the gathering will be the attendance of the Professional and Business Women's club, which has announced the intention of going
in a body.

CHICKEN DINNER
The women of St. Edmunds' Guild
will serve a chicken dinner, which marks the re-opening of the series
of program dinners conducted by the association. The dinner will be served at 6:15.

Kiwanis to Hold Meet in South

Richmond Kiwanis club will receive its charter on September 19, it was decided at the meeting of the Bay
division of the Kiwanis at the Cliff Hotel, San Francisco. It will be a joint presentation ceremonial with East Lake Kiwanis club of Oakland receiving its charter at the same time. Dancing and a banquet will be enjoyed.

It was decided to hold the California-Nevada district convention in San Diego on November 12 and 13.
Richmond was represented at the San Francisco conclave by Hall Sanders, president; J. A. Long, vice-president; Clare Horner, district
trustee; John Regello, director;
John Silveria, chairman of the house
committee; and George Lee, chairman of public affairs.

Burglar Gets Wee Recompense For a Lot of Enterprise

A hearty breakfast and $225 in currency rewarded a burglar who visited two Mira Vista homes yesterday morning.

The pangs of hunger evidently got
the best of the prowler as he raided
the larder of the Harry Albert residence and feasted himself on raw bacon, ham and fish. He then tiptoed into the bedroom and rummaged
through Albert's trousers, leaving the premises 25 cents richer and a far better satisfied man.

Not satisfied with a finger the
"gentleman" decided to take a hand,
so he entered the A. J. Ruel home
on Brooks avenue. At this residence
he dismantled the kitchen but was not above going through Ruel's clothing.
He garnered $2 for his efforts.

In the morning the occupants of the house found a bank book and
some papers scattered about the yard.

BUNGALOW IS SOLD
Leo Persico and Frank Foster,
Richmond realtors, have completed
a deal whereby George Mulholland,
of San Francisco has sold his new
bungalow at 2567 Ohio street to John Reis and Mary Reis.

"Better Business"

RICHARD M. NEUSTADT

Who will address the Richmond
Merchants association tomorrow evening on the subject "Building Better Business" at St. Edmunds' Guild
hall, Neustadt is managing director
of the California Retail Council of San Francisco. He is well known to Richmond business men as their host at the Fairmont Hotel
banquet in celebration of the ferry
opening.

Neustadt has also been manager
of the San Francisco Retail Merchants' Association and he is familiar with the many problems of the retail merchant.

Forty Men Want Job Open to Two

Physical examinations conducted by Dr. C. R. Blake, city health commissioner, have been received by nearly 40 applicants for hoseman positions on the Richmond fire department. The regular examination on a 100 point
basis will be conducted by Fire Chief W. P. Cooper this week.

Two men, making the highest rating will be appointed to the department from the eligible list.

The new budget of the city has provided for the appointment of two new men on the police force. Several men seeking these positions have also been examined by Dr. Blake.

SCOTTISH RITE TEAM PLANNING OAKLAND JAUNT

Rituals in connection with the eighth degree to be conferred on a class of candidates from the Scottish Rites bodies of Oakland will be performed by a Richmond degree team.

The ceremony will be held at the Scottish Rites cathedral in Oakland on Monday evening, August 17. The work will be put on by the Richmond degree team composed of La-Johnson, venerable master; Joseph
Bignall, senior warden; Kenneth V.
King, junior warden; A. C. Morehead, master of ceremonies; Clare D.
Horner, orator; and Charles A.
Green, guardian.

Tax Delinquents To Go Into Seclusion

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—An intensive drive to collect millions of dollars due the government in delinquent taxes will be started September 1, simultaneously with announcement of income tax payment figures for the year 1924. It was learned at the Internal Revenue Bureau
today.

At the same time, Uncle Sam will round up thousands of income
tax dodgers who wilfully evaded contributing their pittance to the treasury. Stiff penalties and in some instances jail sentences will be given
these offenders.

TO PAY TAX

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Richmond Ferry Company has been authorized by the Railroad Commission
to withdraw from the Wells Fargo
Bank any sale of stock previously authorized by the Commission, for the purpose of paying the State Corporation Tax assessed against said company.

AUTHORITIES PROBING TRAIN CRASH AT SAUSALITO YARDS

WITNESSES SAY HEALDSBURG TRAIN APPROACHED YARDS AT FULL SPEED AND CRASHED INTO ELECTRIC TRAIN
BELIEVED TO HAVE STALLED

SAUSALITO, Aug. 15.—Investigation was being conducted tonight into
the railroad accident here today in which 15 persons were injured, some probably fatally, when an inbound Northwestern Pacific steam train
from Healdsburg crashed into the rear of the local San Rafael electric train. Both trains were crowded.

TRAIN MAY HAVE STALLED
The electric train is believed to have stalled when about to enter the Sausalito yard. According to witnesses, the Healdsburg train approached at full speed several minutes later and crashed into the electric train.

BELGIUM GIVES DEBT ASSURANCE

Pressure of America Brings New Basis of Negotiations
For Funding

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Yielding
to pressure from the American Debt Commission, the Belgian commissioners now in Washington have agreed to a basis of negotiations which it is confidently expected will result
in complete settlement of that government's indebtedness to the United States.

Few Points of Conflict
While a few controversial points
remain upon which the two commissions are not as yet in accord,
none of these points is apparently
of sufficient importance to block the settlement. Universal Service was informed in high official quarters.

The principles agreed up on have already been submitted to the Belgian government at Brussels.

Secretary Mellon and Senator
Smoot will lay them before President Coolidge at Plymouth, Vt. on Monday.

EXPECT QUICK WORK

Unless the formula meets with unexpected opposition from either one of these sources it is confidently
believed here that the settlement
will go through without a hitch.
Universal Service was told.

Senator Smoot had expected to leave Washington for Vermont tonight. Instead he will start in the morning for New Haven, where he will meet Secretary Mellon tomorrow night. Both will leave Plymouth Monday night in time for a joint session of the two commissions Tues-
day morning.

Grass Blaze Is Quickly Quenched

A grass fire broke out on First
street, between Bissell and Chanslor
avenues shortly after 12:30 o'clock
yesterday afternoon. Chemical Company No. 1, was detailed to the scene, and put out the blaze before
any damage could be done.

LOST SUITCASE

Mrs. A. Ingals of 2915 Florence
street, Berkeley, reported to Richmond police that she lost a brown
leather suit case between San Rafael ferry and Berkeley sometime after 6:40 o'clock. The case contained a lady's wearing apparel.

DRY RAIDERS NAIL DONOHUE

Hard Pursuit of Two Years Ends
With Arrest of Pair For Operation

"Bob" Donohue and "Bill" Borlen, Donohue's helper, are being held in the county jail at Martinez following
a Friday night raid on Donohue's
place near the Pottery works, off the Giant road.

ON CHASE TWO YEARS.
The dry squad, Officers Groom and Nielsen, had been on the trail of Donohue for about two years. His operations were so elusive that never had they been able to land him, or
get any direct evidence against him.

RAIDED IN DAYLIGHT.
On this unexpected afternoon raid,
however, they found Borlen, Dono-
hue's aged accomplice, according to the officers, and found the stills.

They hit, keeping the old man from
warning Donohue, who was away.
STAYED TILL DARK.

Donohue returned after dark with
a few sacks of sugar in a truck.
The truck was seized, and the two men lodged in jail. It has not been announced whether the truck will
be disposed of by the county.

Charges of possession and operation
of a still will be brought against Donohue and Borlen, according to word from the sheriff's office at a late hour last night.

Clyde Cassidy will be a student at St. Mary's college in Oakland this year.

TWICE AS MUCH TO RUN STATES

The cost of state government in the United States has doubled within five years according to figures just presented by the department of commerce. The figures are especially interesting just now in view of the success that has been had in reducing federal expenditures and in the determined effort being made further to reduce the cost of operating the national government.

In the year 1923, according to the department of commerce the cost of operating the state government was $1,310,332,793, or $11.95 per capita. This included cost of operation and maintenance, interest and outlays. In 1918, during the war, the total payments of the states were $565,485,937, a per capita outlay of $5.47. In 1922 the total payments were $1,280,319,931, a per capita cost of $11.82. As shown by the figures above the cost is still increasing.

Of the total of more than $1,300,000,000 in 1923, $895,953,782 represents the expenses of operating the general department for education to the minor civil divisions of the state; $10,354,743, expenses of operating public service enterprises; $50,446,313, interest on debt, and $353,577,955, outlays for permanent improvements. Of the payments for outlays, $274,911,189, or 77.6 per cent of the total payments for outlays were for highways and waterways.

HARD TIMES?

During the first six months of the fiscal year beginning December 1, 1924, the state of Massachusetts has registered 514,167 automobiles, as against 449,902 for the corresponding period a year ago. Even those who enjoy talking about "hard times" must admit that persons without employment and without money do not go around buying motor cars.

More than $371,000,000 was the total valuation of all California's chief crops during the year 1924. And what product think you, led all the rest in valuation? None other than hay—lowly hay, listed as "tame hay." The hay crop was valued at more than $104,000,000. This will be news to a great many Californians—that hay is the principal soil crop, from the standpoint of valuation of product. Oranges come second—but a wide gap as to valuation—with a crop worth more than $40,000,000.—Long Beach Press-Telegram.

We are justly proud of the fact that almost all of our national heroes were men who started "at the bottom," who attained fame from a lowly beginning. This is comforting to the young man starting out on his own. But let him remember this; our great men did not play around for four or five years before starting to work. They began early and kept eternally at it. There is no other way.—Chico Enterprise.

Take any newspaper published in a large distributing center of the east, say New York, Boston or Philadelphia, open it at the produce page and find a highly pleasing story of California. The name of this state is running through most of the paragraphs of the nation's stories about foodstuffs. If easterners had to do without California products they would have to readjust their daily diet in a very important and radical manner. But, happily, California does not fail them.—Sacramento Union.

The British are arming their troops with a new rifle weighing seven ounces less than the old one and having a bayonet cut short and weighing only 6 3/4 ounces. You can't fight gas with bayonets.—San Bernardino Sun.

A revolution in Greece doesn't seem to cause as much excitement as a world series in the United States.

The younger generation seems to have changed the old song to read "Be it ever so humble there's no place at home."

It is reported that Irish sailors have been getting arms to Abdel-Krim. If the sons of Erin are mixed up in that war, we can understand why it has been such a hot scrap.

It's a good bet that one William G. McAdoo hasn't been sitting up nights worrying about the trouble between Governor Al Smith and the New York legislature.

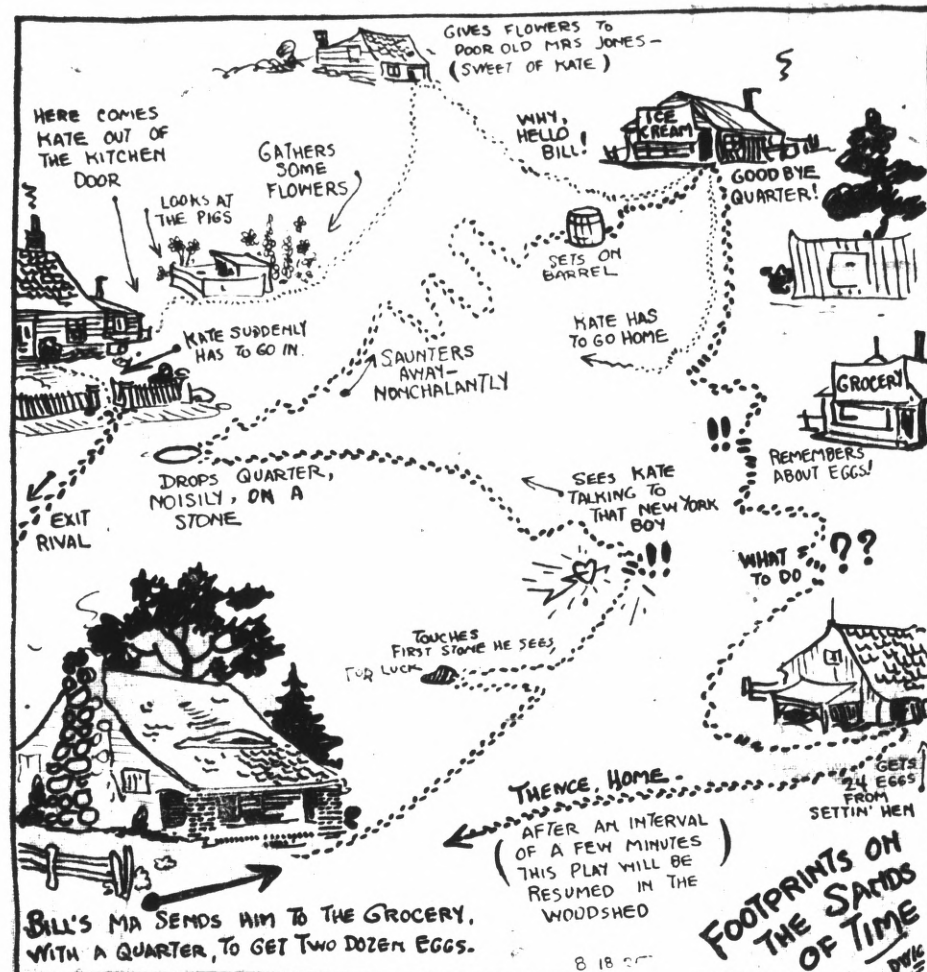

Military experts say that women are going to play an important part in the armies in the next war. Doubtless this will give some super-patriots the opportunity of saying, "I regret that I have only one wife to give to my country."

Who remembers the good old days when the man didn't wear suspenders and chew hard tobacco was regarded as effeminate?

SYNOPSIS

Bob Wilson, young college graduate who suddenly turned tramp, has been induced by Jim Foster to remain in Crater City and now has a job with the railroad. There is much mystery about him and his past life and the advent into the town of the handsome hobo is a source of universal gossip and speculation. Going to the lunch room in the station one morning he is surprised to find many of the night workers remaining for breakfast and detects a general air of expectancy.

thought you were Minnie, the usual waitress here.

But the sting of his original criticism had made the first and deepest impression upon the girl, who was flustered and on edge from the experience of a trying morning of unaccustomed work; her cheeks were stained by a nervous flush.

"Oh, I remember what you wanted—it was stupid of me." She wearily reached for the waffles, to rectify her mistake.

Over the girl's confusion Bob bridged his own return to self-possession.

"I'm glad you brought the waffles—I meant to order them. Doctor told me I ought to eat waffles three times a day. Please leave them—and don't worry about it—he smiled contently.

"You're only saying that!" she charged, defensively suspicious. "I'd much prefer to take them back and fetch what you ordered."

Bob playfully stuck a fork through the nest of flat cakes. "They're mine!" he insisted firmly, adding a white lie in the eternal masculine martyrdom to bungling but pretty womanhood, "and they're just what I wanted!"

The defensiveness was stamped out of her pride under the prancing hoofs of his running smiles and chuckles and good-natured banter. With shy reluctance she relinquished her hold on the waffle plate.

"It's very nice of you—but are you sure—"

"Just as sure as I'm sure that I'm not here at all—that I'm still in bed, sleeping, having a beautiful dream—"

"Do you want your coffee now?"

hastily. The soul hunger of five starved years of exile in the barren society of this railroad town in the mountains impelled Bob on in a freedom of spirit and speech that would have been utterly foreign to his inhibitions in the old days. He tilted his chair back and said to her with the swift frankness of unconcealed admiration:

"I've heard of sights for sore eyes, but you're the first genuine cure I've seen!"

"Do you want your coffee now," she repeated, severely. Then, "Please—Mr. Bramley is watching us. I've made so many mistakes this morning."

"I don't blame Bramley, or anybody else, for watching you." Sudden tears of nervous disappointment and impatience welled behind the long lashes that fringed her blue eyes like Lebanon cedars around Grecian pools.

"When I first saw you I thought you seemed a bit different—than these others," she said in a low tone, "but I must have been mistaken. You're repeating the same things, in better words, that I've been hearing all morning. You're making it very difficult for me. See, here's the manager now—" The girl pretended to be wiping the table adjacent to Bob's place, and said in a louder tone, "Very well, I'll bring your coffee now!"

Bramley strolled up and nodded to Bob with the supercilious deference of a maitre d'hotel to a good and orderly customer.

"Where's Minnie?" fished Bob, really wishing to congratulate Bramley on his choice in the new girl but feeling that it would be sacrilegious to discuss her in an over-the-table offhand manner.

"Sick. Too much for her alone, anyway. When she comes back, now, there'll be two of 'em. Telegraphed to main office and they sent this green girl up yesterday—don't encourage us taking on local girls as a rule, you know. They know too many, and flirt too much," he confided significantly.

"What's her name?" asked Bob innocently.

"Caroline—Caroline Dale. Say, what's got into you to eat waffles for breakfast?" It was part of Bramley's professional boast that he knew the epicurean habits of his "regulars."

"Finest thing in the world—for breakfast. And I've been missing them all these years," Bob lamented.

Bramley shrugged and stroked over to clean up a table after two untidy brakemen in his gingerly "I-don't-really-have-to-do-this-but-just-to-show-I'm-not-too-proud" manner. And at this moment the new girl returned bearing a cup of coffee for Bob.

Lost in his own reflections and reading he neither noticed that the voice was new and unfamiliar nor looked up when he said,

"Good morning, Minnie. Ham and eggs, turned up—toast and coffee—and bring me grapefruit first, please."

The menfolk of Crater City had long since accepted Bob on the strength of his knowledge and his fists; the children and dogs for his character. But grapefruit for breakfast and addition to the only parts of the morning newspaper that nobody else in Crater City ever thought of reading were habits—duly broadcast by the lunch-room's loud speaker, Miss Anemone Trisk, the arid cashier—that kept fresh in the romance scenting noses of the town's fairest creatures a tantalizing aroma of secrecy and an unplumbed past safeguarded behind the unassailable twin brown forts of his smiling yet sad eyes.

An unpractised shoving of dishes under and against his paper came only as a signal to Bob, not as an annoying distraction. He mechanically picked up a spoon without hastily.

having noticed the unsureness of the service, and in absent-mindedness, born of a greater hunger for the news upon which his eyes were feasting, scooped up a spoonful of—waffles!

He was actually on the second bite before it came to him that the "grapefruit" had a most peculiar taste indeed.

"What the devil! Say, where did these leather flaps come from—Minnie, you're getting dumber by the—I—I—I—beg your pardon, Miss!"

He had been vocally castigating the waitress without really seeing her, had taken her sameness for granted, and though his eyes were upon her yet they were vacant with the lingering mental warmth of line upon line of printed words. He was conscious of an uncommon error in the order, not of an uncommon personality involved. The period of transition in his mind from reading to seeing was not rapid; he had been talking and staring with a frown full into the girl's face for perhaps ten seconds before the phenomenon that was the cause of Crater City's latest epidemic struck him. Then the face seemed to rush into dazzling brightness and clearness before his tardily focusing eyes. The naked surface of his brain was burned by a flooding light of raw beauty, unintercepted and undiluted by the too feeble and inadequate lenses of his eyes. He was suddenly blinded to all else but a lustrous picture of blanching ivory and old gold—a pellucid crystallization of the exquisite moulding, the classic refinement, the delicate coloring of a rare cameo.

Bob's impatient frown mercurially became a sackcloth grin.

"I'm sorry—so sorry—Miss. I

thought you were Minnie, the usual waitress here.

But the sting of his original criticism had made the first and deepest impression upon the girl, who was flustered and on edge from the experience of a trying morning of unaccustomed work; her cheeks were stained by a nervous flush.

"Oh, I remember what you wanted—it was stupid of me." She wearily reached for the waffles, to rectify her mistake.

Over the girl's confusion Bob bridged his own return to self-possession.

"I'm glad you brought the waffles—I meant to order them. Doctor told me I ought to eat waffles three times a day. Please leave them—and don't worry about it—he smiled contently.

"You're only saying that!" she charged, defensively suspicious. "I'd much prefer to take them back and fetch what you ordered."

Bob playfully stuck a fork through the nest of flat cakes. "They're mine!" he insisted firmly, adding a white lie in the eternal masculine martyrdom to bungling but pretty womanhood, "and they're just what I wanted!"

The defensiveness was stamped out of her pride under the prancing hoofs of his running smiles and chuckles and good-natured banter. With shy reluctance she relinquished her hold on the waffle plate.

"It's very nice of you—but are you sure—"

"Just as sure as I'm sure that I'm not here at all—that I'm still in bed, sleeping, having a beautiful dream—"

"Do you want your coffee now?"

hastily. The soul hunger of five starved years of exile in the barren society of this railroad town in the mountains impelled Bob on in a freedom of spirit and speech that would have been utterly foreign to his inhibitions in the old days. He tilted his chair back and said to her with the swift frankness of unconcealed admiration:

"I've heard of sights for sore eyes, but you're the first genuine cure I've seen!"

"Do you want your coffee now," she repeated, severely. Then, "Please—Mr. Bramley is watching us. I've made so many mistakes this morning."

"I don't blame Bramley, or anybody else, for watching you." Sudden tears of nervous disappointment and impatience welled behind the long lashes that fringed her blue eyes like Lebanon cedars around Grecian pools.

"When I first saw you I thought you seemed a bit different—than these others," she said in a low tone, "but I must have been mistaken. You're repeating the same things, in better words, that I've been hearing all morning. You're making it very difficult for me. See, here's the manager now—" The girl pretended to be wiping the table adjacent to Bob's place, and said in a louder tone, "Very well, I'll bring your coffee now!"

Bramley strolled up and nodded to Bob with the supercilious deference of a maitre d'hotel to a good and orderly customer.

"Where's Minnie?" fished Bob, really wishing to congratulate Bramley on his choice in the new girl but feeling that it would be sacrilegious to discuss her in an over-the-table offhand manner.

"Sick. Too much for her alone, anyway. When she comes back, now, there'll be two of 'em. Telegraphed to main office and they sent this green girl up yesterday—don't encourage us taking on local girls as a rule, you know. They know too many, and flirt too much," he confided significantly.

"What's her name?" asked Bob innocently.

"Caroline—Caroline Dale. Say, what's got into you to eat waffles for breakfast?" It was part of Bramley's professional boast that he knew the epicurean habits of his "regulars."

"Finest thing in the world—for breakfast. And I've been missing them all these years," Bob lamented.

Bramley shrugged and stroked over to clean up a table after two untidy brakemen in his gingerly "I-don't-really-have-to-do-this-but-just-to-show-I'm-not-too-proud" manner. And at this moment the new girl returned bearing a cup of coffee for Bob.

Where It Started

"GO THE WHOLE HOG"

Formerly an English crown was called in slang a "hog." Gamblers would risk perhaps a shilling or half-crown; one bolder than the others would say "I'll go the whole hog!" Another explanation is that the followers of Mohamet could eat pork except one portion of the animal, not specified. Each at table would eat a part, tell they had "gone the whole hog," but no one had eaten all of it.

San Pablo Dairy Will Hold Barbecue At Opening Today

After months of preparation the San Pablo Milk Producers Dairy will hold a grand opening today at the new plant in the San Pablo valley. A big barbecue and jubilee starting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and continuing throughout the remainder of the day will mark the opening of what is declared to be one of the finest equipped and most sanitary dairies in the state.

THE PRINCIPALS

The new concern is conducted by A. M. Luiz, J. M. Luiz and J. L. Azevedo, all of whom have had years of experience in dairy management in this section. Azevedo will be manager of the plant.

SANITATION FOREMOST

Sanitation and cleanliness in all details of operation will be stressed under the new system used in the new plant. From the time the milk leaves the udders of the cows until the time it is sealed in the bottles and delivered to the consumers, it does not come into contact with human hands.

CLEANLY METHODS

The complete process is an interesting one. Before the cows are milked their udders are thoroughly washed to prevent bacteria or any foreign substance from entering the milk at the very start. The milking is done with the most modern milking machines by white uniformed attendants.

PRESERVATIVE MEASURES

The freshly-drawn milk is pumped into the reservoir in the creamery building, from there going to the filters. It is then run through an ice cooling plant that has a temperature of 30 degrees Fahrenheit to a Simplex spray pasteurizer, where it is heated to a temperature of 140 degrees Fahrenheit for 20 minutes, immunizing it from bacteria.

TEMPERATURE REDUCED

After leaving the pasteurizer, the milk passes over a water cooler which brings its temperature down to 72 degrees, and finally over an ice cooler which cools it to 36 degrees Fahrenheit.

FILLING BOTTLES

The milk then goes to a Milwaukee filling machine and is placed in bottles and then capped without ever being touched by human hands. The machine fills 60 bottles per minute and handles 200 gallons per hour.

AT FREEZING TEMPERATURE

The bottles of milk are then taken to the ice box, which has a temperature of 20 degrees. There it is kept until it is loaded into trucks and delivered to the consumers. The entire process requires only one and a half hours.

HERD OF 300 HOLSTEINS

The 300 thoroughbred Holstein cows are kept in sanitary white-washed buildings with concrete floors and the most sanitary drains. These buildings are well ventilated and cleaned and are declared by dairy inspectors to comply in every respect with the strict requirements of the state dairy laws.

CREAMERY PLANT

A feature of the plant is the creamery building, which is installed with the most up-to-date equipment. The work on the dairy was supervised by Tandy and Thiele, general contractors.

PUBLIC INSPECTION

The plant is unique in the fact that it affords the consumers an opportunity to see for themselves the sanitary methods used to keep the milk free from bacteria of any kind. The whole process, from the time the milk is drawn from the udders of the cows until it is put into bottles and stored in the ice box, will be witnessed by visitors at the plant. J. L. Azevedo, manager, has extended an invitation to the general public to attend the opening today or to inspect the plant at any time.

Rev. R. J. Vanderbrook, pastor of E. Church in Iowa shot and killed his wife wounded, by their son, 17 years of age.

Movie Leader Has Theme Based Upon Commandments

The Red Sea and San Francisco are about five thousand miles apart. The Israelites led by Moses on their exodus from Egypt are separated by about forty centuries from Sunday afternoon jazz dancing today. Yet, Cecil B. De Mille has managed to put them together convincingly in his picture, "The Ten Commandments." This great Paramount picture is coming to the California theatre, for three days starting tomorrow, where it will be shown for the first time at popular prices.

The modern story opens on a devoted mother driving one of her two sons from home because he will not "apologize to God" for what she believes sacrifice. The son goes out into the world, not bitterly, but boyishly exultant, to smash every commandment. Then DeMille develops his theme that "if you try to break the Ten Commandments they'll break you."

A gorgeous Biblical episode, done in natural colors, is enacted by such popular players as Estelle Taylor, Theodore Roberts, James Neill, Chas. De Roche, and Lawson Butt. The two million persons who have paid from one to two dollars to see this greatest of Paramount Pictures testify that the highest point the cinema art has yet reached, has been achieved in this most ambitious directorial effort of Cecil B. De Mille.

Larry Semon Is Photoplay Star

Larry Semon, star and producer of "The Girl in the Limousine," the first National picture which will be seen on the screen of the Richmond theatre today only has appeared in the course of his long career before the camera in fully three hundred pictures. A great many of these were one and two reel pictures, made in those early days of the motion picture when the Keystone cops were in their heyday.

"The Girl in the Limousine" is the comedian's first venture into the field of feature pictures. The production is an adaptation of a successful Broadway stage farce written by Avery Hopwood and Wilson Collier and produced by Al Woods. It is described as a rapidly-moving, thrilling and uproarious farce comedy.

Other features on the same program include "Dog Days," an "Our Gang" comedy, and "Kinograms," world news events.

Mirth and Music On Theater Bill

"I Should Care" a mirthful melody play with Willis West and His company of merry makers is the big noise on the triple bill at the California theatre today.

The latest song hits are to be heard with the popular players in roles that suit them. All new wardrobe and new dance steps with the sextette of beauties as the interpreters are highlights of the presentation.

Other stage features include "Just Two Pairs," two dainty girls and two boys, offering breezy bits and harmony hits; Maudie De Long, "The Baseball Bug" and Billy Dodge, comedy songster.

ON THE SCREEN

The screen feature will be a Paul Bern production for Paramount entitled "Grounds For Divorce." Ina Claire's Broadway comedy hit filmed on a big laughing scale. A gay story of tangled Paris divorces with Florence Vidor, Matt Moore, Louise

Still Greater Quality; New Lower Prices

While the motoring public acclaims the Chrysler Six as the most phenomenal car ever built, Walter P. Chrysler announces notable improvements in quality—of materials, of performance, of craftsmanship, of equipment, of design.

Greater Power—Increased cylinder bore resulting in approximately 10 per cent more torque, giving 70 miles per hour with greater ease and quickness than ever before.

Faster Acceleration—5 to 25 miles in 7 seconds, power enough to climb the steepest grades and pull through deepest mud or sand, from refined power plant with a still larger crankshaft of 50 per cent greater torsional rigidity.

Remarkable Fuel Economy—Carburetion improved to deliver 20 and more miles per gallon of gasoline, notwithstanding increased power and faster acceleration.

Improved Rear Axle—Ring gears and pinions are larger, differential carrier heavier to handle increased engine power.

Distinctive Color Combinations—Body colors, in duco, are the most attractive and tasteful ever offered. Chrysler-designed, Fisher-built closed bodies are further refined; attractively low and gracefully rounded.

Extraordinary Equipment—Chrysler equipment is of a quality and completeness rarely found on any car—even the highest priced. It includes Purolator, which filters all dirt from crankcase oil as the motor runs.

Watson Stabilizers, the most efficient and most costly device of its type to absorb the shock of road irregularities; air cleaner, which removes all road dirt and dust from air entering the engine; thermostatic control of water heat for more efficient operation; Chrysler-Lockheed hydraulic four-wheel brakes which provide utmost safety control; "SOS" electric horn; duco durable body finish; balloon tires.

Two years ago, Chrysler predicted that the Chrysler Six would change the whole trend of motor car design, engineering, manufacture and equipment.

Today the industry is celebrating as advanced improvements features which Chrysler introduced and which made the Chrysler Six the outstanding quality car in all the world.

Today, while others proclaim Chrysler Six features of two years ago, Chrysler strides forward to new limits of quality, of performance results, of advanced engineering.

Chrysler Six owners the world over do not forget these truths:—

Two years ago, Chrysler pioneered the compact, roomy car, combining comfort and ease of riding, without wasteful weight or extravagant size.

Two years ago, Chrysler introduced a new ratio of horse-power per pound of weight. The Chrysler Six is today the only car in the world which gives a speed of 70 miles per hour and more, combined with gasoline economy of better than 20 miles per gallon.

Two years ago, Chrysler created the first double-tone color combinations and re-created American taste in motor car finish.

Two years ago, Chrysler pioneered Purolator—the oil filter which cleanses your crankcase oil as the motor runs.

Two years ago, Chrysler advanced an entirely new design in bodies, and today

Chrysler-designed closed bodies are all executed by Fisher.

Two years ago, Chrysler initiated the four-wheel hydraulic brake trend. The Chrysler Six was the first car to have, as standard equipment, these self-equalizing brakes of super-safety.

Two years ago, Chrysler Six provided, as standard equipment, the air-cleaner which keeps dust and dirt out of your engine.

Two years ago, Chrysler gave thermostatic control of motor heat to assure greatest working efficiency.

Two years ago, Chrysler eliminated slide-way by a new method of spring suspension exclusive to the Chrysler Six.

Today, the new developments initiated by Chrysler quality have not yet brought any other car abreast of the Chrysler Six of two years ago.

And meanwhile, Chrysler has developed new measures of manufacturing fineness, new features of extraordinary equipment, new superlatives of performance and new standards of riding and driving ease now available in the new Chrysler Six at new low prices.

Discriminating buyers are naturally refusing to go back to the Chrysler standards of two years ago. They seek the Chrysler standards of today. That is why Chrysler sales are reaching new high peaks each month.

New Power Adds To Buick Sales

By C. C. KRATZER
Of Buick Sales Agency

Again Buick has demonstrated its popularity. Those who visited the local Buick salesrooms during the last week have seen for themselves the surprising degree of interest on the part of local motorists.

With the power increased to 75 horsepower in the Master and 60 in the Standard, the performance on acceleration, or quick starting and hill climbing is remarkable. Considering that new cars always show more power after they have been driven a few hundred miles, the performance of the new models has been truly wonderful. In these new cars one will find reserve power which is appreciated far more where there is considerable hill climbing than where

'Richmond Night' Set For August 29 at Pinole Fair

Richmond is to have a night at the Pinole Diamond Jubilee carnival. That night will be Saturday, August 29, the time when the biggest crowds will gather and the carnival spirit will hold fullest sway.

Announcement that Saturday night had been selected of the four days included in the celebration was made yesterday by Miss M. M. Jensen, secretary of the Richmond Merchants association. The carnival will be held August 27, 28, 29 and 30—Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

TO HOLD RECEPTION

The merchants association will have a booth and reception room where the organization will be host to the merry-makers and business boosters from all over the county and from outside points.

Working with the secretary on the reception committee are William Mayer, Harley Carter, and R. E. Slattery. Ferry schedules, letting the public know of the Richmond-San Rafael service, will be distributed under orders of Miss M. M. Jensen, manager of the company. Other gifts will be distributed.

RICHMOND MEN CONTRIBUTE

Furniture for the reception room will be furnished by the Richmond Furniture company and the Searader Furniture company. President Fred B. LaMoine, Vice-President, M. E. Hazelton and Treasurer Ward MacKenzie will be on hand to represent the association, as will the members of the board of directors, Ed. Crane, Al Furrer, L. Garfinkle and Harry Marcus.

HELEN WINS IN SINGLE SETS

FOREST HILLS, Aug. 15.—England won the international women's tennis championship and possession of the Wightman trophy when its doubles team, composed of Miss Kitty McKane and Miss Evelyn Colyer defeated the American combination of Miss Helen Wills and Miss Mary K. Browne, in the final and decisive match by scores of 6-0, 6-3.

(By Universal Service)

FOREST HILLS, Aug. 15.—Miss Helen Wills, American national champion, just managed to win the odd set and match from Miss Kathleen McKane, the British ace, in the Wightman trophy series at Forest Hills today after a grueling battle lasting an hour and a half. The score was 6-1, 1-6, 9-7.

Mrs. Lambert Chambers, the British captain, had previously brought her team within a point of retaining the cup for another year, by defeating Miss Eleanor Goss, No. 3 player on the American team, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1. Mrs. Molla Mallory carried the American forces into a tie by defeating Miss Joan Fry, Wimbledon finalist, in straight sets this afternoon. Scores, 6-3, 6-0.

Her victory put the burden of proof on the doubles match, final of the series, between Miss Helen Wills and Miss Mary Browne, America, and Miss Kitty McKane and Miss Evelyn Colyer, England. The Wills-McKane duel left Helen in complete charge of the situation as far as the international series is concerned. She won in 1923, Kitty won in 1924. Therefore Helen's vic-

FIREMEN LEAVE FOR VACATION

A number of firemen in the Richmond department departed for their vacations last night. The men will be gone two weeks.

Those leaving this morning include Percy Mortensen, Engine No. 2; Al Hickok, Engine No. 1; Bill Willet and Samuel Presler, both of Engine No. 1.

Sacramento—Water mains being extended on James street west, from Rocky Point to Eighth street.

Copper wire made into telephone cable by the Western Electric Company last year would go to the moon 25 times and back.

Today gave her the edge for another year.

The match produced a profusion of thrills as the tides of fortune ebbed and flowed. The first set was all Helen; the second was all Kitty. In the third the American went into a lead of five to two in games and at least a half dozen times thereafter was within a point of two of the match.

Hotel Towel Burns Conscience, So He Sends it to Owner

MONTGOMERY, Pa. Aug. 14.—Hotel managers become hardened to the necessity of charging a certain number of stolen towels to profit and loss but one hotel man here has had a towel returned to him from Birmingham, Ala. with the following explanatory letter:

"Proprietor:
"I am returning to you a towel which I found in a hotel down here in Birmingham. Since I thought it did not belong there any more than to me I carried it away with me as a souvenir but I feel that I should not have it in my possession, so I am returning it to its rightful owners.
"Jesus is coming back to earth again and it behooves each and every one to live as close to God as possible, as His coming is not far distant.
"A worker for the Lord."
The manager, taken by surprise, returned the towel with his compliments.

"Dried and found wanting" will be the subject of a discourse on political economy by I. M. Wetmore in Henry's hall.

Strom Sees New Automotive Era

"Today for the first time in the history of the automotive industry the aggregate of money spent for maintenance and operation by car owners is a bigger sum than the sum spent for new cars," says J. P. Strom, Richmond agent for the Auburn, Hudson and Essex.

"This means that the man who has only cars to sell is measuring up to less than 50 percent of his responsibility to his community."

"The big job before the car dealer henceforth is to make the essentials of maintenance and operation easily and economically accessible to the car owner."

"He must so build, equip, and manage his organization to take on a still greater local responsibility for satisfaction in ownership."

New Measure of Value

Chevrolet represents the highest type of quality car selling at a low price. Public acknowledgment of this fact has been evidenced by a greatly increased demand for Chevrolet cars. This increased demand has resulted in increased production making possible decreased prices on closed models and improved quality on all the models. Now Chevrolet provides "Quality at Low Cost" to greater degree than ever before. Now Chevrolet presents to automobile buyers everywhere a new measure of value.

We are now making a special showing of these new cars and would be glad to have you call and see them.

-now 75 Horse Power

Buick Performance steps further ahead in World Leadership

The Valve-in-Head engine in the Better Buick Master models delivers more than 75 horsepower! Extra power has been added to the extra power always a feature of Buick's famous engine.

Even drivers of previous Buicks will be amazed at the performance the Better Buick now places at their command. The higher efficiency of the engine in the Better Buick includes the same economical consumption of gasoline and oil that has distinguished all past Buicks.

And the Better Buick now leads the world in protection for engine and driving units. Three new seals have been added to Buick's famous Sealed Chassis. An air cleaner, a gasoline filter, and an oil filter now insure clean air, oil and gasoline for the engine.

Drive one of the Better Buicks. Know how much the new 75 horsepower Standard of Performance adds to the pleasure of Buick's ownership.

You never again will be satisfied with the power and performance of the ordinary motor car.

MERCHANT BODY GROWS RAPIDLY

Membership of the Richmond Merchants association has practically doubled in the last year, it was stated at the new office in the new Syndicate building yesterday.
The membership of the organization
now totals 53, according to Miss M.
M. Jensen, the secretary. The Retail Credit bureau is doing a lively business.

Anderson Home Is Scene of Pythian Party
Mrs. Edna Anderson entertained
a large group of whist players at a party in her home on Forty-fifth street in Stage last evening. The affair was given for Richmond temple No. 86, Pythian Sisters and their friends.
A number of handsome prizes were given away, and all declared an enjoyable evening had been spent.
Refreshments served by the hostess
rounded out the evening.

To Fight Rats And Mosquitoes
Richmond has declared war!
Every health official within the convines of the city is out armed with poison and oil with the avowed
purpose of Pied Piepering the rats
and oiling the mosquitoes into oblivion.
This was the statement made yesterday by City Health Commissioner
Dr. C. R. Blake.
The dump piles of the vicinity are said to be "lousy" with rats, and in the swamps the mosquitoes grow in record breeding numbers and sizes.
This is all to be done away with in the next few weeks.

BAPTISTS HAVE LIVELY FROLIC

Annual Outing of Sunday School
Marked by Oodles Of Exuberance
Pep and hilarity in abundance characterized the Baptist Sunday school's annual picnic from the start at 1
o'clock to the finish after dark.
Romping in Live Oak park, Berkeley the picnickers developed huge appetites for the supper spread by the women's Bible class, headed by Mrs.
Bert Weiss.
In the races, winners were as follows: Boys 30-yard race, ages 8 to 10 years, John Brunite, first; Leonard Miller, second; boy's race, ages
10 to 14, William Phillips, first,
Clyde Parker, Jr., second; boys' race,
16 and over, won by Earl Craven, Clyde Parker, Jr.

The Busy Bee, a girls class, trump-hed twice, winning the boys versus girls relay, defeating the Mountain
boys, and winning the girls' stunt contest. The Shawnees won the boys stunt contest.

MRS. HAGERDON FUNERAL HELD
Friends and relatives of Mrs. Ida
Mae Hagerdon, wife of Charles Hage-
rdon, member of Richmond police force, gathered at the Wilson and Kratzer chapel yesterday afternoon
to pay tribute to the memory of their loved ones.
Richmond Rebekah lodge conducted the services at the chapel, while
the Auxiliary to the Spanish War
Veterans held the services at Sunset View cemetery, where the remains were cremated. Rev. Frank A. Wotter, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated.
The pall bearers were E. E. Grow,
E. A. Thomas, E. E. Phillips, J. E.
Robinson, of the Spanish War Veterans, and Charles Mahnke, and George Bengley of the police department.

Funeral Is Set For Tomorrow
Funeral services for John Frederick Bergemann will be conducted from the Wilson and Kratzer parlors Monday at 2 p. m., with Rev. Samuel officiating. Interment will take place in Sunset View cemetery.
Bergemann passed away on Friday
evening in a San Francisco hospital.
He was a native of Germany, but a resident of this city for 22 years.
Deceased is survived by Mrs. Delia
M. Bergemann, 115 Fifth street, and by a daughter Mrs. Eugene de Soto
of Berkeley.

"Automotive
Benefits"
"Automotive Benefits" is a term used to describe those greater liberties and privileges which
the automobile brought into human life.
You can't enjoy any of them without a car. You can't enjoy all of them without a dependable car backed by permanent local responsibility for that car.
You'll find both the car and the responsi-
